Notes: 1. In Mississippi, the eight Unpledged Electors voted for Harry Byrd (President) and Strom Thurmond (Vice President). 2. In Oklahoma, one Nixon elector cast his vote for Harry Byrd (President) and Barry Goldwater (Vice President). 3. In Alabama, the 11 Presidential Electors were directly elected. Due to the result of a state primary, five of the Democratic electors on the general election ballot were "loyalists" pledged to Kennedy and the remaining six were "Free" electors, not pledged to the Democratic national ticket. These six "Unpledged" electors cast their ballots for Harry Byrd (President) and Strom Thurmond (Vice President). The Democratic popular vote total for Alabama is the highest total that any elector received. Some argue that Kennedy should only be credited with 5/11ths of the 324,050 popular votes (147,295) as only 5 of the 11 electors were pledged to him. 4. The votes for the Louisiana Electors in the "Unpledged" column actually ran on a States' Right party ticket.
